HUMAN RIGHTS AND DEMOCRACY IN THE WORLD: REPORT IN EU ACTION IN 2011

In a statement on Camp Ashraf in Iraq on 9 December, the High Representative underlined that an orderly solution to the problem of Camp Ashraf must fully respect international humanitarian law.

The EU continued to voice its human rights concerns in its dialogue with Iraq. The EU Delegation in Baghdad maintained regular contacts with the authorities as well as representatives of civil society and minorities and, together with the EU diplomatic missions, continued the activities of the Human Rights Working Group. The EU also continued actively to support the United Nations in their efforts to facilitate a peaceful solution to the situation of Camp Ashraf residents. The High Representative encouraged all those who can bring any influence to bear on the situation to do so constructively, placing the security and safety of the residents as the utmost priority.
